

President's Message

by Barry McNeill, 2013-2014 ASURA President

We certainly got off to a great start this September with more than 70 people showing up for the Meet & Greet Pizza Party, organized by Barbara Eschbach and her Luncheon and Special Events Committee. We had good pizza, good camaraderie and recruited some new members and volunteers. I'd say that's a pretty successful start to the year.

In my last letter I mentioned two issues I wanted to address: increased membership and event attendance, and increased information on health and health insurance. Here's an update:

The issue of membership and event attendance morphed into something more inclusive. During the summer the ASURA Board and I began working on the possibility of surveying our members to help the Board improve our member recruitment and retention efforts. By the end of the summer I had articulated the following four strategic goals which I presented to the Board in September:

- Goal 1 - Increase Membership
- Goal 2 - Better Serve Our Members
- Goal 3 - Review Community Outreach Portfolio
- Goal 4 - Ensure Long-Term Health of the Association

These are not new goals but they helped me understand better what the Board considers as it makes decisions about the Association.

I further proposed that a survey of our members and potential members would be useful for addressing the first three strategic goals. I felt the fourth goal was best addressed by the Board and its committees. The Board unanimously approved the concept and four survey question groups were created. If we keep on schedule you should see the survey in early January.

As for health issues, good progress has also been made. Art Ashton, Pat Moore and Phyllis Primas, our Health Insurance Liaisons, have worked closely with Jan Thompson and her seminar committee to develop a very ambitious seminar in early October. The liaisons have also been working with Connie McNeill, our webmaster, to improve the information on the ASURA web Health Insurance page. I encourage you to visit the page; I think you'll be impressed.

I hope you all have productive autumns and find our menu of fall events as appealing as you did the Meet & Greet!

ASURA First Event of 2013/2014 - Meet & Greet Pizza Party!

by Barbara Eschbach

The first event of the year determined that ASU Retirees are a lot like kids and grandkids: they Love Pizza, especially when it's free pizza! But more importantly, the Meet & Greet Pizza Party was an opportunity to share stories, experiences, and "what I did on my summer vacation" with friends and former colleagues. The photos you see on the ASURA website Photo Gallery document that everyone was smiling and having a great time!

The party was held on Wednesday, September 11th, and was attended by more than 70 individuals! Four of those attendees were new retirees and new members of ASURA. So, we were very happy to welcome the "newbies" to their first event.

ASURA President Barry McNeill was the emcee of the party. Barry welcomed everyone, and introduced 2013/14 Board members and committee chairs. Committee chairs spoke briefly to describe activities that are either planned or about to be planned, including more luncheons, seminars, travel opportunities, fund raisers, the golf tournament, etc.

We look forward to the events of 2013/14 as well as the participation of ASURA members and their spouses/partners/friends in these activities.

(NOTE: More than 70 ASU retirees enjoyed the "Meet & Greet" Pizza Party September 11. To see more photos of this, and other, ASURA events, go to the ASURA website's Photo Gallery - <http://asura.asu.edu/photos/>.)

Your Books = Needed Scholarship

Now that you're settled (or still getting settled) in your retirement from ASU, you – like many of us – may find that you have more books in your home or office than you know what to do with. ASURA can help solve that problem and, in the process, help a deserving student complete his or her studies.

ASURA collects donated books and sells them online through an established vendor, who splits the sales proceeds with ASURA. Proceeds are put toward ASURA's annual scholarship, which currently is $10,000. The student who is selected is either a returning student (one who has been away from higher education studies for a period of time) or to a community college student, based on financial and other criteria.

Tomas Espinosa was selected by the ASURA to receive this scholarship for the 2013-14 academic year. Like his predecessors, Tomas must: be a full-time student, complete a minimum of 24 semester hours during the academic year, attain a minimum 2.50 GPA, and make a short presentation at the ASURA annual meeting in April, 2014.

Donation books can be delivered to the ASURA office in the Community Services Building, Room 201B, 200 East Curry Road in Tempe. You will receive a gift tax receipt from the ASU Foundation, which administers ASURA's accounts.

For more information contact Mary Stevens at marystevens0@gmail.com (602-758-3750) or Bill Moor at William.moor@asu.edu (480-838-8348).

Invite a Friend

Do you have friends who retired from ASU but are not members of ASURA? Or perhaps you have friends who retired from another university or worked at ASU in the past but left and have now retired elsewhere? If so invite them to become members of ASURA and the best part is that it is free for the first year. Ask them to go to our Web site (<http://asura.asu.edu>) and click on the "Join the ASURA" link in the left column to start the process or alternative call our Office at 480-965-7668 for help.

Know Who Offers Your Health Insurance Programs

If you do not know whether your health insurance programs are offered through ASRS, ADOA, someone else (e.g., AARP), or a combination of these — as Dick Murra, ASURA's Health Insurance Liaison for almost 20 year, says — "Find out and post it on your refrigerator! It will come in handy if you have a problem." The offering agencies can be very helpful if you are having problems resolving an insurance issue with one of their carriers.

To find out, contact both ASRS and ADOA (you may have dental insurance from one and health insurance from another, for example) and ask them if their records show you as enrolled in their health programs, and if so, in which.

Revisions to ASURA Bylaws

In September 2011, then ASURA president Bill Moor appointed an ad hoc committee to consider improvements to and recommendations from ASURA members, for the ASURA Bylaws. Members were polled through email or letter between December 18, 2012 and January 31, 2013, and approved the proposed amendments. There were two material changes:

ARTICLE III.A. Membership Eligibility

Two new categories of individuals are now eligible for membership:

1. Retired persons who were former employees of ASU but may have worked elsewhere after leaving ASU
2. Retirees from other universities

ARTICLE III.B. "Membership Fee" or "Donation" changed to "Dues"

The current membership form refers to the annual fee of $30 as a "membership fee" rather than "dues." The form also allows for "optional donations" beyond the membership fee. There has been discussion of whether ASURA may refer to the $30 payment as "dues." After conferring with the ASU Foundation, which manages ASURA's accounts, the Bylaw uses "dues" to refer to the annual membership fee.

The revised Bylaws may be accessed on <http://asura.asu.edu/> and clicking on Bylaws in the right-hand column.

Nominations Sought for ASURA Board of Directors

Nominations are currently being sought for those retirees interested in serving on the ASURA Board of Directors.

The nomination process started October 1 and ends January 1, 2014. Final selection of nominees will occur no later than January 31, 2014. Duties of an ASURA board member are presented in the ASURA Bylaws and are available on the ASURA website.

Anyone interested in serving on the board should submit a statement of interest to Nominating Committee Chair Bill Moor no later than December 31, 2013. You may nominate yourself or another ASURA member as a potential board member. To be sure that your nominee's name gets on the ballot, submit a petition of nomination bearing the signatures of at least ten (10) current ASURA members. All other nominees will be evaluated by the nominating committee.

Email statements may be sent to Bill Moor at William.moor@asu.edu. Hard copy statements may be sent to Bill Moor at:

Success by the Decade

By Connie McNeill

A Second Decade of Success: A History of the Arizona State University Retirees Association is complete and available to ASURA members at no cost.

The book was developed under the leadership of Val Peterson, who led a team of volunteers who were involved in the production of the book: writing and editing text; collecting and adding photos; and putting the material into print-ready format. The committee, whose names are in the bylines and acknowledgements in the book, raised donations sufficient to cover the cost of printing 500 copies, which is why the book is available to ASURA members at no cost.

There are several ways to get your own copy:

- You can stop by the ASURA office pick up one;
- You can get one at many of our upcoming events, such as the Holiday Potluck, Retirees Day and the

- ASURA annual meeting;
- You can send a check for $2.75 (mailing costs) to the office. The check should be made payable to ASU Foundation (ASURA). Include a note indicating that you would like a copy mailed to you and providing the mailing address.
- You can read the book online on our website. The version that is online has color photos! See <http://asura.asu.edu/about> for links to both the new book and to Dean Smith's A Decade of Success: An Illustrated History of the Arizona State University Retirees Association. This book is a history of ASURA's first decade, 1991-2000. ASURA holds copyright for both books, and any commercial use of contents without written permission is prohibited.

Copies for non-members are $5 each and may be obtained from the ASURA office.

Video History Update, Fall 2013

by Linda Van Scoy

Wow, the start of another academic year is upon us. Like most of the ASURA committees, the Video History crew usually takes the summer off. However, this year our vacation schedules worked out so that several of us were around periodically and therefore we took advantage of the opportunity to add a couple more interviews to our inventory. The latest additions are Quentin Bogart and Ed Scanell.

We also added several more of the short clips to the web site and have over 35 to offer viewers now. These brief vignettes from the full interviews are entertaining and interesting so I encourage you to take a look at them. Remember just go to the ASURA web site, click on Video History Program and you will see a list of all the individuals we have interviewed. Behind their name and department information, if you see the words "video clip" just click on that and a 1-3 minute clip will play. Our goal this year is to have these clips available for all of the interviews.

Another goal in 2013-14 is to increase the number of edited interviews by contracting with professional editors and/or student editors to assist us in this process. Editing is a time consuming task and we have limited volunteers who are knowledgeable about this process. If any ASURA members out there have experience in video editing or would like to learn, please let us know! It's fun and rewarding! Our committee sends thanks to those members who have generously donated to the Video History Project because it helps us to pay for transcriptions and editing.

We are looking forward to adding another dozen or so new interviews to our library this year and ask for nominations of retired ASU employees (in all categories) you think would have an interesting ASU story for the project. Self-nominations are welcome! Send your nominations with a brief justification to lvs@asu.edu and we will include it with others for the committee to consider in the coming months.

Video History Committee members are: Roger Carter, Elmer Gooding, Richard Haefer, John McIntosh, Ann Patterson, Becky Reiss, Dave Scheatzle, Linda Van Scoy.

(Video History Crew Members: Dave Scheatzle, Linda Van Scoy, John McIntosh, & Roger Carter)

KAET Pledge Drive

Last spring when members of ASURA met with Virgil Renzulli, Vice President Public Affairs and our Association's sponsor within ASU, he suggested that we might like to help with the KAET, Channel 8, pledge drives. This seemed like something that would be fun to do and give our Association some good exposure.

Mary Stevens organized our first effort and on Saturday, August 3, Elmer Gooding, Jo & Matt Madonna, Barry & Connie McNeill, Bill & Marilyn Moor, Bill Stasi, Mary Stevens, and Hal White showed up at the downtown KAET Studio, somewhat nervous about what we had agreed to do but also eager to get started.

We had an evening shift and by about 5:30 pm we'd been fed, "trained", and seated in the studio waiting our first call. The first call was definitely the most difficult call of the shift as we worked our way through the provided script. What saved us all was to let the caller know that we were volunteers and were just learning the system. As soon as the caller heard that it was "Oh don't worry; there is no rush; thank you for volunteering, etc." The Shift Captain had told us that once we completed our first pledge the next would be much easier and that turned out to be true for the most part.

Once we got into the swing of things it was fun. The script got you started but after a couple of calls each of us had modified the script a bit to better reflect our personalities so it did not sound like we were just reading a script. It was not too long before we were discussing how beautiful the Vienna Opera House was, where the caller was when Elvis burst on the scene, what happened to the caller's collection of vinyl Elvis records, etc. Most callers were calling to buy one of the pledge gifts shown on the television but some callers just wanted to pledge; they liked all the KAET programs!

Our shift was from 5:30 to 10:00 pm which seems like a long shift but as long as we were working on the phones time flew by and most of us had calls coming in fairly continuously. We actually had all the lines in use during portions of the Elvis program.

The only disappointment was that it was a virtual and not a live pledge drive. During a live drive there is a host in the KAET studio who makes the pledge appeal and generally says something about the volunteers that are working the phones. Mary had selected the date because it was a live drive but it was changed to a virtual drive a week or so before the drive and so, while snippets of us showed up on television, there was no mention of who these snippets were.

We plan to do more KAET pledge drives and if you are interested please contact either Mary Stevens at marystevens0@gmail.com (602-758-3750) or Bill Moor at William.moor@asu.edu (480-838-8348) or call the ASURA office at 480-965-7668.

Veterans' Day Golf Tournament

The 7th ASU Veterans' Day Golf Tournament organized by ASURA will be held on Monday, November 11, 2013 at the ASU Karsten Golf Course. We hope to get 80 ASU employees, retirees, alumni, friends, people who enjoy a nice day on the golf course, and sponsors to participate in this "scramble" tournament.

The entry fee is $85 which includes golf, cart, practice balls, 19th hole BBQ lunch, prizes and awards. Proceeds of this year's tournament will be used to support ASURA's Living Video History Project and to increase the endowment for the ASURA Scholarship.

The weather will be great so plan on joining your colleagues for a fun day of golf and camaraderie. You can register by going to the ASURA website, at <http://asura.asu.edu> or calling the ASURA Office at 480-965-7668 to get a registration form.
